

SUBJECT	GENERAL LINGUISTICS
SSD (Settore Scientifico-Disciplinare)	L-LIN/01
PROFESSOR	FRANCESCO RUGGIERO

OBJECTIVES	The course covers the main concepts of general linguistics in subject areas like semantics, historical linguistics and semiology. By the end of the course, students should have mastered the basic terms of linguistics and know how to use the descriptive tools: morphological and lexical analysis, principles of linguistic change and interlinguistics. The second part of the course explores Italian dialectology from a historical-descriptive and grammatical point of view.
-------------------	---

CONTENTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Glossary of linguistics terms from the comparative philology of early German Romanticism to Saussure's revolutionary approach to the discipline</li> <li>• Theories on the origins of languages, Indo-European languages, the recent developments in the field: generative and structural linguistics, sociolinguistics.</li> </ul>
-----------------	--

EVALUATION
Final exam	<input type="checkbox"/>	Continuous assessment	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Type of test:
WRITTEN	<input type="checkbox"/>	ORAL	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Author	Federica Casadei
Title	Lessico e semantica
Publisher	Carocci
Published in	2011

Author	Saussure
Title	Corso di linguistica generale
Publisher	Laterza BUL
Published in	1997