LEARNING OBJECTIVES	The course aims to consolidate and expand the knowledge acquired in the first and second year and, in the "culture" module, to explore the history of Ireland from the nineteenth century to the present day
----------------------------	--

CONTENTS OF THE COURSE	In the language module, the course focuses on developing listening and reading comprehension skills at C1 level and on expanding the students' lexical and grammatical competence. Students take an active part in the lessons through research projects, group activities, individual presentations and simulations of real-life situations. Course materials include newspaper articles, websites, TED talks, excerpts from documentaries and TV programmes, as well as "traditional" grammar textbooks. In the culture module, the course explores the history of Ireland from the early nineteenth century to the present day (from the Act of Union of 1801, to the Troubles, to contemporary Ireland). Materials include a play (Brian Friel, Translations), poetry, folk songs, films, and contemporary music.
